Carmen Gomez

I have been coming to the Malta camp for a couple of years now; this is probably my third time. It's a great way for me to disconnect from my routine and to do things I'm not used to do at home. I enjoy making new friends with the helpers and the guests.

Caroline Meeus

It's my 7th Malta camp. I like coming and coming back to the Malta camp because I particularly appreciate this ambiance, this lovely atmosphere, the huge help of the volunteers and their humor. It's a real adventure for me!

Richard Novak

It's my first Malta camp. I'm so happy to be here, to take part in this fun and adventurous week, and to meet new people. I'm looking forward to the programme of this upcoming week.

Corinne Zammit

It's my 6th camp. I like being here as I'm doing different activities than at home and I am getting out of my comfort zone. It's such a nice opportunity that we have here - to meet new people, to interact with other countries, and to learn from each other. I must admit, I am especially interested in the disco part of this camp.

Meet Maltacamp mascotte : Scala!

SN: What is your name and the story behind it?

Scala: I'm Scala, named after the oldest town on the Amalfi Coast in Italy, where Blessed Gérard, the founder of the Order of Malta, was born.

SN: Quick details – what is your age, breed, and gender?

Scala: I turned 2 on 26th July and I'm a proud female Working Cocker!

SN: Have you already been to Malta events?

Scala: This camp is my debut! But, I've been in all the prep meetings and I will be here until the very end!

SN: In which languages can we address you?

Scala: Any of them, but intonation is the key. And if you tell me "assis" [asi] in French, you will watch me sit!

SN: Your loves and pet peeves?

Scala: I adore playing and receiving caresses - and to be the camp's mascot! What an honour! But please only feed me if you're Charlie, the camp's big boss, or his wonderful wife, Malix, who is one of the camp's nurses. Also, kindly avoid lifting me as it hurts my back. And please take care of me, given my little size!

SN: Who illustrated you on the cover page?

Scala: That was the talent of Charlie's cousin, Philippine d'Otreppe.

SN: Are you dangerous?

Scala: Me? Just a bundle of joy! And oh, I love kisses and when you say hi! No reasons to be afraid! Ouaf!

SN: Your top camp wish?

Scala: To spread joy as the camp's mascot!
But most importantly:

Enjoy the camp as much as I do!
